

AMAZING CHARTS EHR BREATHES NEW LIFE INTO SOLO PRACTICE

Dr. Silverstein would have retired if not for Amazing Charts

Robert Silverstein, MD

CHALLENGE: TRANSITIONING FROM PAPER CHARTS TO AN EHR

- | | | |
|--------------------------|---|---|
| Insurance chart reviews | → | My practice manager was spending lots of time dealing with insurance company chart reviews due to illegible handwriting, abbreviations and signatures." |
| Hours of transcription | → | "Every day my practice manager spent several hours typing my dictations into paper charts." |
| Pressure to go paperless | → | "I was thinking about retirement, and I knew the age of the EHR was coming. I could feel the pressure all around." |

SOLUTION: AMAZING CHARTS EHR

- | | | |
|-----------------------|---|--|
| Easy to implement | → | "When you get to my age you don't want to tolerate nonsense. That's not what Amazing Charts is about!" |
| Software integration | → | "The integration of Dragon Dictation with Amazing Charts frees up several hours of my practice manager's day!" |
| Easy to use | → | "My practice manager likes to joke that you can teach an old dog new tricks, and learning this EHR proves it." |
| No more chart reviews | → | "Chart reviews used to be very stressful, and now we don't even worry about them." |
